

The DePalma Roy Scholarship Fund

In honor and memory of Don DePalma, accomplished jazz pianist from the Greater Hartford area. I will be issuing an 1-year scholarship in the amount of $1500 to one deserving high school student or deserving college student.

Don, or as some would say “Donnie”, DePalma was a Hartford Jazz legend. He was the music director of the legendary 880 Club. Born and raised in Wethersfield, CT he started his music career on trumpet and made a later switch to piano. He was also well versed in percussion instruments. He died due to complications of Covid-19 on May 16, 2021, nine days before his 74th birthday.
